WHERE FRIENDS and JAZZ MEET...

Newsletter Volume XX Number 6 JUNE 2019

Young Musicians, Energetic Dixieland, Monday June 17

Fredtown Stompers

Early Jazz band formed at SUNY Fredonia.
Now graduated, they still love playing.

Hear this award-winning band at the Radisson, Monday, June 17th. The FREDTOWN STOMPERS bring excellent musicianship, an early jazz repertoire, and youthful energy everywhere they play. Will be a great evening.

The Fredtown Stompers band plays for the love of the music and the people. Their spirited New Orleans style of playing attracts young and old to create an infectious enthusiasm that gets your feet tapping and sends the whole crowd into a dancing frenzy.

Flower City Jazz Society dues are $20-per-person-per-year, as of June 1, 2019. Membership Renewal/Inquiry: contact Len Marcus (address & phone page 2).
The Fredtown Stompers began as an ensemble of students from The State University of New York at Fredonia in January of 2006. The band is renowned for performing traditional Dixieland and Hot Jazz hits that span from old classics to nontraditional modern staples.

The band met with incredible success gigging weekly at Coughlan’s Pub in Fredonia, NY. This wave of prosperity carried them to Buffalo NY where they have established themselves as the premier Dixieland band in the western NY area. Playing all the local bars, events and many venues including Nietzsche’s, Mowhawk Place, Hot Mama’s Canteen, weddings, private parties and more… They have also been highly sought after all over NY state. Winners of Jazz Buffalo's 2016 Best Performance (at the Lewiston Jazz Fest) and 2016 opener for the BPO's tribute to David Bowie Thursdays at Canalside concert!

-member profile. Jacquie Degnan  Jacquie has been a member of Flower City Jazz for about six months. She has always liked jazz, she said, and enjoyed traveling to New Orleans several times with her late husband to listen to the music there.

Born in Virginia, she grew up in Cincinnati. She was educated in Cincinnati and married her first husband there. They raised three children, all of whom still live in Cincinnati. She has four grandchildren.

Jacquie moved to Rochester 45 years ago and bought a photo lab here. It was A&R Color Lab, in Henrietta. It dealt only with professional photographers. She had 90 employees at one time. She closed the business seven years ago.

Five years after moving to Rochester, she met and married her second husband, Ed Degnan. He was an attorney. He passed away a year ago.

Jacquie lives in Pittsford. She loves to cook, work in the garden, entertain, read, and have fun. She still also works part time for a photo lab, during parts of the year, where she is a customer service representative.  Written by Ron Anderson
